

1-3 JULY 2025 2ND PATRAS APPLIED MICROECONOMICS (PAM) WORKSHOP

The Department of Economics at the University of Patras in collaboration with King's College London and the gentle backing of the Hellenic Observatory Centre \(LSE\), are delighted to announce the 2nd Patras Applied Microeconomics (PAM) Workshop. PAM Workshops aim to bring together researchers and academics to provide a platform for knowledge sharing, collaboration, and exploration of new findings in applied microeconomics research. PAM Workshops focus on the empirical application of microeconomic theories and methodologies that address policy-relevant research questions, and contribute to the understanding of microeconomic behaviour, market dynamics, policy interventions, and their implications for decision-making and welfare outcomes. Emphasis will be given to submissions related to Labour Economics, Economics of Education, and Health Economics. However, submissions from other fields of applied microeconomics are also welcome.

CALL FOR PAPERS

IMPORTANT DATES:

March 10, 2025

March 30, 2025

April 30, 2025

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Elias Papaioannou
London Business School

ORGANISING COMMITTEE:

Ioannis Laliotis
Dimitrios Minos
Nicholas Giannakopoulos
Vassilis Monastiriotis

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT OUR WEBSITE

[pamworkshop.
upatras.gr](http://pamworkshop.upatras.gr)

Format & Structure:

This year's PAM Workshop will be hosting a keynote speaker's presentation and around 12 research papers, to be presented in plenary sessions of about 45 minutes each. Participants are encouraged to present their recent or ongoing research findings related to the any of the fields of applied microeconomics listed above.

Submission Guidelines:

Please submit your working paper to be reviewed by our committee. The paper should be clearly outlining the objectives, methods, findings, and implications of your research. There are no submission fees for this workshop. You can submit your paper online here.

Workshop Venue:

Department of Economics, University of Patras, Rio Campus, Greece.

- Information about the venue is provided here
- Location of venue on Google Maps is provided here

Registration:

Registration for the workshop will become available once your submitted paper has been accepted. There are no registration fees. Accepted presenters will receive additional information about their travel and accommodation in due course.

We are excited to receive your work and anticipate another vibrant Patras Applied Microeconomics (PAM) Workshop. Let us come together to advance the practical applications of microeconomic theory and contribute to evidence-based decision-making across various sectors.

For inquiries, please contact us:

pamworkshop@upatras.gr

CALL FOR PAPERS

IMPORTANT DATES:

March 10, 2025

March 30, 2025

April 30, 2025

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Elias Papaioannou
London Business School

ORGANISING COMMITTEE:

Ioannis Laliotis
Dimitrios Minos
Nicholas Giannakopoulos
Vassilis Monastiriotis

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT OUR WEBSITE

[pamworkshop.
upatras.gr](http://pamworkshop.upatras.gr)